

MysteryQuest 29

Evaluation Materials 1 (Rubric)

Assessing the Evidence and Ratings

	Outstanding	Very good	Competent	Satisfactory	In-progress
Identifies relevant and important statements	Identifies the most important statements from the documents and many subtle details.	Identifies most of the important statements from the documents.	Identifies some relevant statements from the documents, but important ones are omitted.	Identifies some relevant statements from the documents, but few of the important ones are mentioned.	Identifies no relevant statements from the documents.
Identifies possible consistencies and inconsistencies	Identifies the most important and relevant consistencies and inconsistencies between the documents.	Identifies most of the important consistencies and inconsistencies between the documents.	Identifies some relevant consistencies and inconsistencies between the documents, but important ones are omitted.	Identifies some relevant consistencies and inconsistencies between the documents, but few of the important ones are included.	Identifies no relevant consistencies and inconsistencies between the documents.
Offers plausible ratings	The ratings are highly plausible and highly justifiable given the evidence.	The ratings are clearly plausible and justifiable given the evidence.	The ratings are plausible and somewhat justifiable given the evidence.	The ratings are plausible but barely justifiable given the evidence.	The ratings are implausible and not justifiable given the evidence.