

MysteryQuest 30

Evaluation Materials 1 (Rubric)

Assessing the Evidence and Inferences

	Outstanding	Very good	Competent	Satisfactory	In-progress
Identifies relevant and important evidence	Identifies the most important and relevant information about each aspect of life.	Identifies most of the important information about each aspect of life.	Identifies some relevant information about each aspect of life, but important details are omitted.	Identifies some relevant information about each aspect of life, but none of the important details are included.	Identifies no relevant information about each aspect of life.
Offers plausible and imaginative inferences	The inferences are highly plausible and supported by the evidence, and often go beyond very obvious interpretations.	The inferences are clearly plausible and supported by the evidence, and occasionally go beyond the most obvious interpretations.	The inferences are generally plausible and supported by the evidence, and tend to be rather obvious interpretations.	The inferences are often plausible and supported by the evidence, but tend to be very obvious interpretations.	The inferences are implausible and not supported by the evidence.