

MysteryQuest #41: Support material (Assessment rubric 2)
Assessing the reinterpretation

Use the following rubric to assess students' reinterpretations of the illustration that includes Inuit evidence and perspectives.

	Outstanding	Very good	Competent	Satisfactory	In progress
Accurate representation of important evidence and information	Evidence is abundant, accurate and includes all important information.	Evidence is sufficient, mostly accurate and includes most of the important information.	Evidence is sufficient, mostly accurate and includes much important information.	Evidence is adequate, sometimes accurate and includes some important information.	Evidence is very limited, seldom accurate and misses all the important information.
Accurate representation of additional perspectives	Accurate representation of abundant information from other perspectives.	Accurate representation of much information from other perspectives.	Mostly accurate representation of sufficient information from other perspectives.	Sometimes accurate representation of some information from other perspectives.	Inaccurate representation of information from other perspectives.